

Literature Center

translation and travel grants

Icelandic Literature

The Icelandic Literature Center is a government-funded office, founded in 2013. The role of the Center is to raise awareness of Icelandic literature, both in Iceland and abroad, and to promote its distribution through translation and travel grants.

Foreign publishers may apply for

- ◆ Translation grants from Icelandic | open to foreign publishers wishing to publish a work translated from Icelandic
- ◆ Nordic translation grants from Icelandic | open only to Nordic publishers wishing to publish a work translated from Icelandic into other Nordic languages
- ◆ Travel grants | foreign publishers, Icelandic authors or organizations arranging events can apply for travel grants for Icelandic authors to promote their work abroad
- ◆ Sample grants | to produce sample translations of Icelandic literature

Translators of Icelandic literature may apply for

- ◆ Residency and travel grants | open to translators of Icelandic literature

Grant application deadlines

- ◆ Translation & Nordic translation grants | 15 February & 15 September
- ◆ Travel grants | 15 January, 15 May & 15 September
- ◆ Translators residential grants | 1 October
- ◆ Sample grants | 15 February & 15 September

Online grant applications islit.is/en/grants

Icelandic Literature Center
Hverfisgata 54
101 Reykjavík
Iceland

+354 552 85 00
islit@islit.is
www.islit.is